PAYMENT DETAILS

Once your application has been approved by the Membership Committee, we will be in touch to arrange payment for your joining fee and first membership payment by credit card.

All memberships are renewed annually on 1st December and this first payment will be a pro rata amount of the full annual subscription. We will inform you of the amount due prior to the payment being taken.

If you hold a UK bank account, we require a direct debit mandate for payment of future annual membership fees. In addition, the direct debit mandate will be used to collect charges made to your account at the Club.

If you do not hold a UK bank account, we require a credit card for your annual membership fee and any charges made to your account. We will be in touch following on from your election to arrange this.
